A MESSAGE FROM UNITED GRAD WORKERS

The UGW Coordinating Committee is holding special elections this month in order to fill several Chief Steward seats from the College of Arts & Sciences, the School of Engineering, the Department of Physics & Astronomy, the Health Sciences College, and the Anderson School of Management. If enrolled in one of these areas, you can self-nominate through February 14th. If interested, consider attending our info session for candidates on Friday, February 11th at 9:30am. Email any questions to ugwelections2021@gmail.com. Additionally, the Board of Regents is having a public Zoom meeting on February 15th at 9am. Consider signing up in advance to give a public comment about working conditions and/or our demand to bargain - you can find instructions here. Finally, UGW is now accepting voluntary dues in order to help cover the cost of our ongoing campaign. Voluntary dues are $2.50 a month, and you can pay by cash or check (email lindsaymorrone@unm.edu to set this up or slide payment under the door to Logan Hall, B68F) or by Zelle (phone # 505-440-0373).

GRADUATE STUDIES SUMMER DISSERTATION AWARD

The Graduate Studies Summer Dissertation Award provides summer support for graduate students in the dissertation-writing phase who served exclusively as teaching assistants (.50 FTE) during the Fall 2021-Spring 2022 academic year. Students who held a fellowship or a graduate, research, or project assistantship for part or all the academic year are not eligible. Previous recipients of this award are also ineligible.

The award provides summer funding to doctoral or MFA students so they may focus primarily on their dissertation during June and July, with the goal of facilitating the timely completion of the dissertation during the following academic year (Fall 2022-Spring 2023).

Award amount: $5,000 for summer dissertation writing ($2,500 for June/$2,500 for July).

Deadline: 5pm, March 11 for application packet and letters of recommendation.

Read more about the Dissertation Award here.

February 8, 2022

Dear Engaged Lobo,

We're pleased to invite you to join the Engaging Men & Masculine People (EMMP) Working Group!

EMMP is a working group under UNM's Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) Campus Grant. The grant focuses on lessening the occurrences of sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking on college campus with focuses on a few major areas: student conduct, prevention education, victim services, and engaging men & masculine people of the campus community.

Join EMMP to expand your network and give back to the University community. Collaborate with campus partners to create prevention programming to engage men & masculine-identifying people in the work and develop marketing materials targeted to male & masculine-identifying student victims.

The EMMP Working Group has the following expectations for members:

- Attendance at monthly meetings
- Assistance disseminating information about EMMP programs and events
- Attendance at EMMP events, when possible
- Input on topics brought to you by professional staff
- Review of EMMP Working Group programming

Thank you for your time and consideration, we look forward to your response about joining the EMMP Working Group! If you have any questions or need further information, you can reach Armando Bustamante at abustam1@unm.edu.

WANT TO SHARE A MESSAGE WITH GRAD STUDENTS?

WE CAN SHARE YOUR MESSAGE WITH ALL GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL STUDENTS AT UNM

Our team is dedicated to promoting the resources available to Graduate & Professional Students at UNM. If you want us to highlight an event, program, or other resource available to Graduate & Professional Students, please email a request to gpsapr@unm.edu with a brief description and flyer to include in the next newsletter.

All requests should be made one week prior to the publication of the GPSA Communiqué. The deadline for submissions to be included in the next newsletter is 5:00 PM on Feb 4, 2022.

WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT GPSA?

OUR TEAM IS HERE TO SUPPORT YOU ANY WAY THAT WE CAN! READ OUR FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why do I have GPSA charge on my bursar's account? Students enrolled in a degree-seeking graduate program at UNM are required to pay a student fee to GPSA. This fee goes to funding UNM programs and organizations and is allocated annually by the Student Fee Review Board. Students who do not pay this fee are not eligible to apply for scholarships or grants through GPSA.

Are new UNM Graduate & Professional Students eligible to apply for grants? Yes. You are eligible to apply for SRG, PDG and NMRC (if being offered in the semester) if you meet the respective grant's requirement. However, you are not eligible to apply for the Graduate Scholarship Fund (GSF) if you are in your first semester.

WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT GPSA? CONTINUED

Are grants and scholarships offered every semester? The Student Research Grant (SRG), Professional Development Grant (PDG) and Graduate Scholarship Fund (GSF) are offered in every semester i.e. Fall, Spring and Summer. However, the New Mexico Research Grant (NMRC High Priority and General Priority) are offered only in the Fall Semester.

Can I apply to multiple grants in one grant cycle? Yes, you can apply multiple grants in the same grant cycle, but each grant requires a separate application i.e. Statement of Proposal, Budget sheet and Letter of Recommendation (if required).

Can I utilize my grant award another semester? Yes, you can. The funds which are sought for the event or activity must be utilized within the next, current or previous funding period.

Ask a question. Didn't see your question in our list of FAQs? Submit any questions you have on our website. If your question is urgent or specific, please submit an email directly to the appropriate Committee Chair for a quicker response.
