

Zoila Alvarez is enthused for the opportunity to serve as Council Chair. She is a 1L student at UNM School of Law. Zoila earned a Masters in Language, Literacy, & Sociocultural Studies from the UNM College of Education where she served as COE-GPSA President in 2014-2015. She also served as a voting member of the GPSA Council and GPSA Legislative Steering Committee. In 2015, Zoila received the GPSA Presidents Award for Innovative Leadership for her service to students. Currently, she works part-time as a Research Fellow at the UNM Center for Education Policy Research and volunteers for the Marshall-Brennan Project.