

WHEREAS, The University of New Mexico is composed of a diverse student body of more than 27,000 Lobos howling from every corner of our state, our country, and the world;

WHEREAS, the mission of The University of New Mexico is to serve as New Mexico's flagship institution of higher learning through demonstrated and growing excellence in teaching, research, patient care, and community service;

WHEREAS, The University of New Mexico, as the Flagship University, shall serve as a hub of progression, rooted in history, propelling us forward;

WHEREAS, The University of New Mexico is a culture of contrast, not a contrast of cultures, that cultivates an environment of inclusion ensuring the prosperity of all Lobos and that everything that divides us, defines us;

NOW, THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED, the Graduate and Professional Student Association of the University of New Mexico believes that it is contrary to accomplishing the collective goals of the University for any individual or agency to use divisive language which pits any area of our university against another; and,

NOW, THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED, that all students and faculty, administrators and alumni, join together in continual advocacy of one University and if a member of our community speaks contrary to the shared mission of our University they should be reminded E Pluribus Lobo.

NOW, THEREFORE LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the UNM Staff Council, UNM Faculty Senate, UNM Alumni Association, UNM HSC Board of Directors, UNM President Robert Frank, and the UNM Board of Regents.
