

116 Harm to Humans or Animals: Physical, cultural, psychological, emotional, or other harm to humans
117 or animals.

118 High Priority Research Project: A research project conducted by GPSA members which is completed
119 in collaboration with a New Mexico State Agency.

120 Judicial Budget: Funding allocated for the administration of the judicial branch.

121 Judicial Oath of Office (Oath): A pledge each Justice appointee must make prior to officially 122 assuming the duties and privileges of a Court of Review Justice.

123 Legislative Budget: Funding allocated for the administration of the legislative branch.

124 Legislative Item: An appropriation, resolution, amendment to the GPSA Constitution or Bylaws, or 125 other piece of legislation submitted for Council consideration.

126 New Mexico State Agency: An entity approved by the Grants Committee that is not a college,
127 department, or program at a public University of the State of New Mexico.

128 Non-Profit Community Organization: An entity registered as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with 129 the Internal Revenue Service and/or under the laws of the State of New Mexico or of an Indian tribe.
130 This organization must have a New Mexico address and must conduct a majority of its activities
131 within New Mexico.

132 Open Meeting: A meeting of any GPSA Decision Making Body with a quorum present, held for the 133 purpose of taking action, formulating policy, or discussing public business, which is open to the 134 public. Open Meetings must comply with TPNR.

135 Permanent Equipment: Items that will not be depleted at the end of a research project.

136 Pro Tempore Justice: A temporary Justice who participates in judicial proceedings when an approved
137 Justice is recused or impeached or when the Court of Review has fewer than three (3) Council
138 approved Justices.

139 Proxy: A GPSA member selected to vote on behalf of a Council Representative or Certified Alternate.

140 Research: Any activity performed by members of GPSA with the intent to generate generalizable
141 knowledge that will be communicated for potential public use. This includes, but is not limited to, an 142 artistic, athletic, cultural, educational, financial, historical, humanitarian, legal, linguistic,
143 mathematical, medical, musical, occupational, political, religious, scientific, sociological, structural,
144 technological, or therapeutic investigation.

145 Supplies and Consumables: Items that are expected to be depleted at the end of a research project.

146 Telecommunication: Use of a conference telephone or other similar communications equipment.

147 TPNR: Transparency and Public Notice Requirements; specifically the section of the Bylaws with 148 this title.

Deleted: high