Boards & Committee Representative Application for Graduate & Professional Students

Being a Boards and Committees representative allows you to be the voice of students on committees that impact student life at UNM. These positions are appointed after the GPSA Boards & Committees Application has been filled out and emailed to gpsa@unm.edu; students will be appointed to boards and committees on a rolling basis throughout the year. Please go to the GPSA Website to see which boards & committees may still be available and learn more about what each committee does: <https://gpsa.unm.edu/executive/university-committees.html>. Below is a list of current Boards & Committees that have graduate and professional student representation:

Admissions and Registration Committee
Athletic Council
Be Kind
Campus Development & Advisory Committee (CDAC)
Campus Safety Council
Curricula Committee
Enrollment Management Committee
IT Academic Technology Advisory Board
IT Use Committee (ITUC)

KUNM Radio Board
Library Committee
Recreational Services
Research Policy Committee
Student Conduct
Student Publications Board
Student Union Building (SUB) Board
Teaching Enhancement Committee
Tuition & Fee Remodeling Committee
Student Fee Review Board (SFRB)

As a GPSA Appointment to a University Board or Committee, you will be representing students. If appointed, you will be required to:

- Attend all meetings of that board or committee
- Collect agendas and handouts distributed at each meeting
- Submit a report to the GPSA President within one week of each meeting.
