GPSA Emergency Scholarship Application  Spring 2021

The GPSA Emergency Scholarship is available to any UNM degree-seeking graduate or professional student who can demonstrate a critical financial need in order to continue their education for the Spring 2021. The award will be up to $300.

Important dates:
Applications open: Jan 18th – Jan 31st (11:59 PM MST)
Review: Feb 1- Feb 14th
Results:  Feb 15th – Feb 19th

Submission Requirements

a. One-page personal statement expressing the situation that created the emergency and how this scholarship will support your educational goals.

b. Supporting documentation that will assist the committee in their decision-making process.

c. Completed application form.

Scholarship Process

a. Submit completed application packet to gpsa@unm.edu

b. The applicant should be willing to schedule an appointment with selection committee to provide additional in-person information if necessary.

c. The award will be processed in the applicant’s UNM Bursar’s account within three weeks after the deadline. If there is a balance in your Bursar’s account, the award will be applied toward any amount due.
In order to continue providing resources for as many students as possible, if you are awarded a scholarship, you are not eligible to apply for another GPSA Emergency Scholarship during the current Academic Year.

GPSA Emergency Scholarship Application

Name: ____________________________________ UNM ID#: __________________________

Phone: __________________________ UNM E-mail: _________________________________

Program of Study: _____________________ Expected Graduation Date: ________________

Current Number of Hours Taking: _______ Total Hours Completed in Program: _______

Do you have an Assistantship? Yes / No. If yes, please circle the type: (PA, GA, RA, TA)

Please cover any other sources of financial support: _________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

All the information on this application, and attached to this application, is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that the GPSA Emergency Scholarship will count as a resource toward my overall cost of attendance and may affect my financial aid. I authorize the UNM Student Activities Center to examine my academic records to confirm my eligibility for this scholarship.

Applicant Signature_________________________________ Date________________

******************************************************************************

For Office Use Only

Committee Decision: Awarded / Denied / Disqualified

Name of the Committee Members: _____________________________________________

Notes: